

Client Name: Rahul Sharma
Customer ID: 101
Meeting Date: 2026-02-15
Relationship Manager: Kavya Menon

Rahul visited the branch to discuss prepayment options for his active home loan. He mentioned that his salary has increased recently and he is considering partial foreclosure. Client is risk moderate and prefers stable investment instruments. Currently invested in a SIP plan and shows consistent monthly contribution behavior. He expressed interest in tax-saving instruments before the financial year end. No recent complaints or service issues reported. Spending pattern shows higher transactions in lifestyle and travel categories. RM suggested exploring balanced mutual funds and step-up SIP. Client also enquired about upgrading to a premium savings account. Overall financial health appears stable with good repayment history. Follow-up scheduled next month to discuss portfolio rebalancing.
